France

Dear General Inspector Martini:

It was a pleasure to meet you and to speak to the officers and instructors of the French National Police Academy. Thank you for your warm reception.

The heroic actions of the French police in the days before and after my visit show too clearly the threats that France and the international community face. I am confident that the next generation of leaders at the Ecole Nationale Sup erieure de la Police will contribute greatly to U.S.-French cooperation.

Thank you as well for the scarf and the coin, which will remind me of our time together in Lyon. I also appreciate all that you and your staff did to ensure my visit to the Academy was a success.

Yours very truly,
